

DMCC Coffee Centre hosts Ambassador of Costa Rica to the UAE

9 May 2019

The DMCC Coffee Centre hosted the Ambassador of Costa Rica to the UAE, His Excellency Francisco Chacón Hernández today for a tour of the state-of-the-art 7,500m<sup>2</sup> temperature-controlled facility.

HE and his delegation were briefed on the services offered by the Centre from crop to cup. The group were impressed with the cost-effective logistical support and services provided by DMCC, and discussed potential trade partnerships in the near future.

Costa Rica is one of the largest coffee producers in the world, and the decision of this senior delegation to visit the Center serves to show the growing reputation of Dubai as the new global hub for coffee.
